

BEAUNE BRESSANDES

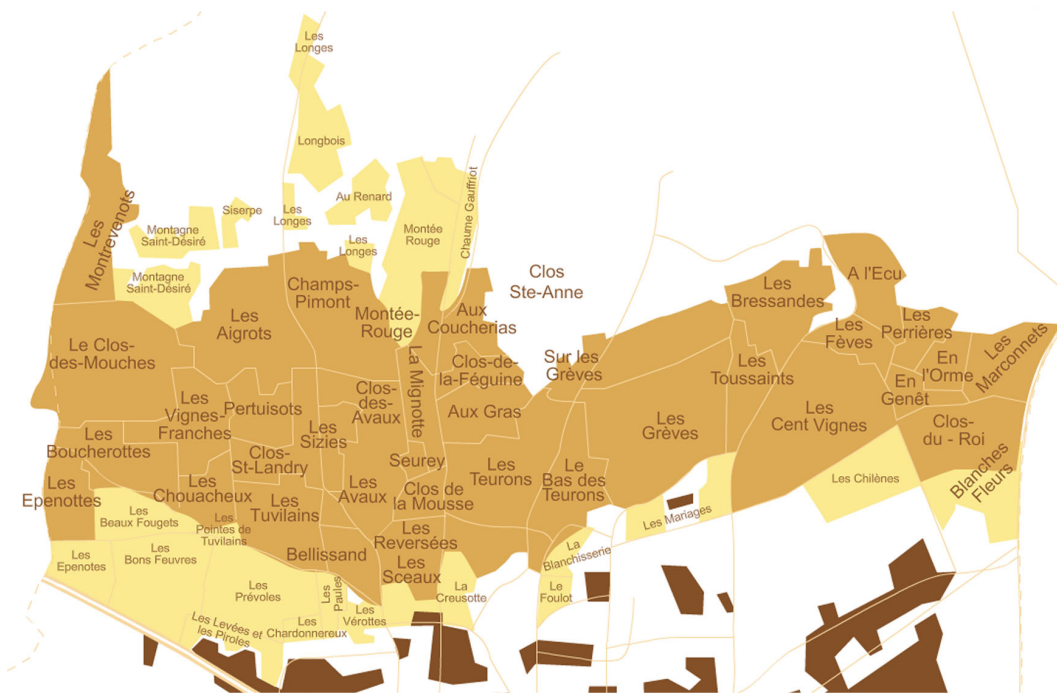

Côte de Beaune

Premier Cru

White

100% Chardonnay

Vineyards situation

The Beaune vineyards are the most extensive of the Côte de Beaune, between Savigny to the North, and Pommard to the South. There are no Grand Cru vineyards in this commune, but 36 Premiers Crus.

Characteristics

The vineyards are almost totally situated on a slope and, most of the climats are Premiers Crus like « Les Bressandes ».

This Premier Cru is situated at the North of this vineyard, at the top of the slope above « Les Toussaints » and « Les Cents Vignes » and next to « Les Grèves ».

It is considered as one of the finest white Premiers Crus.

This place is magic, very sunny, and very close to the original rock. This vineyard has been planted 20 years ago.

Wine making

This Premier Cru is aged in oak barrel during about 18 months before being bottled.

Winemaker's comments / Gastronomy

This rare white wine is associating richness and vivacity, that is why it is well balanced and very attractive.

It will perfectly match fish, cooked shellfish, and hot pâté.

Preservation

This wine can be appreciated after 5 years. But great vintages can be kept 12 to 15 years in good cellaring conditions.
