LOUIS JADOT

Corton Clos du Roi

Côte de Beaune

Grand Cru

Red

100% Pinot Noir

Vineyards situation

The Clos du Roi vineyard is located on the famous Corton hill facing East. It is often called the "red side" of the hill.

Characteristics

The vine was planted in 1970. The Clos du Roi is one of the most elegant Grand Cru from Corton. The grapes are always picked up at their appropriate ripeness, which is always important for this appellation.

Wine making

Maison Louis Jadot vinifies and ages this wine in oak barrels for about 15 mois before bottling.

Winemaker's comments / Gastronomy

Corton Clos du Roi is very aromatic, very subtle and elegant, full of breed.

This Grand Cru is the perfect companion to red meat and game.

Preservation

It will be able to keep more than 20 years in good conditions of humidity and temperature.
