

LOUIS  JADOT

MÂCON-VILLAGES "LA FONTAINE"

Mâconnais
Appellation Régionale
White
100% Chardonnay

Vineyards situation

The Mâcon Villages area is located in the southern part of Burgundy, close to the Beaujolais area. This appellation is the largest of the Mâconnais area, covering about 2 500 ha of vineyards and 43 communes. Forty three villages have the right to produce Mâcon Blanc Villages. Mâcon Villages are only white wines.

Characteristics

The wines are made from 100% Chardonnay grapes. The limestone subsoil of the Monts du Mâconnais are ideal for growing the Chardonnay grapes. Some small areas produce exceptional wines. The Louis Jadot Mâcon Blanc Villages is made from grapes from these different areas.

Wine making

The Mâcon Blanc Villages "La Fontaine" is vinified in stainless steel tanks in order to extract the maximum floral and fruity aromas and freshness.

Winemaker's comments / Gastronomy

Dry and easy to drink, lively and charming, this is a fruity wine with a floral scent and a hint of lemon, the Mâcon Villages should be drunk chilled and rather young.

This wine goes very well with a large range of foods including "hors d'oeuvres", fried or grilled fish, sea food, goat's milk cheese, poultry.

Preservation

The Macon Blanc Villages "La Fontaine" will be at its best within 5 years, if kept in good conditions of temperature and humidity.
