

SANTENAY GRAND CLOS ROUSSEAU

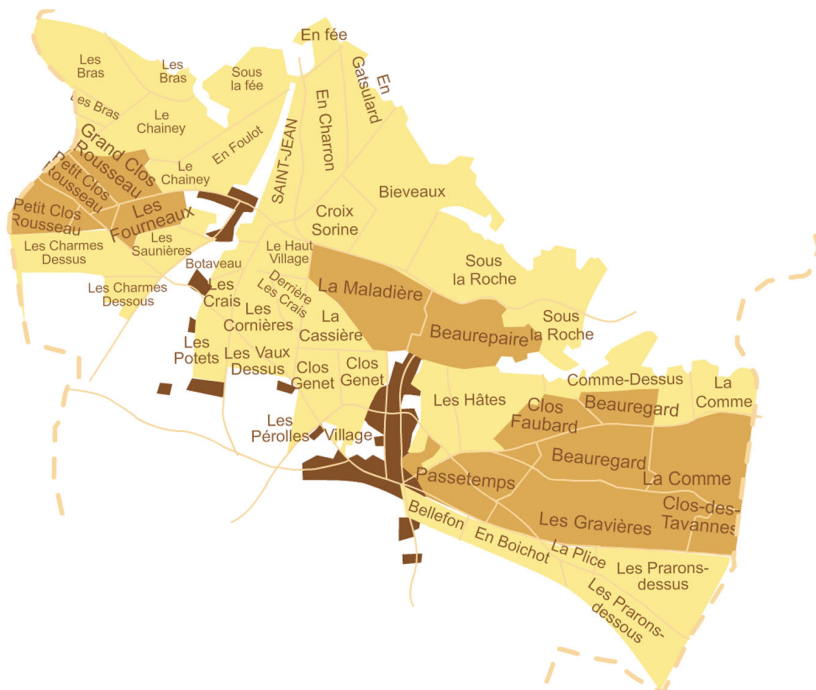

Côte de Beaune

Premier Cru

Red

Pinot Noir

Vineyards situation

The Grand Clos Rousseau Premier Cru is located to the south of the village of Santenay, in the middle of the slope next to the Maranges vineyards.

Characteristics

The soil there is generous, deep with a great deal of clay.

Wine making

The grapes are destemmed and fermented during 4 weeks. Aging takes place in oak barrels (1/3 new) during 18 months.

Winemaker's comments / Gastronomy

This wine shows a very nice colour and offers rather strong tannins. The aromas have plenty of black berries and spicy smells.

Preservation

This wine requires some aging before being fully enjoyed: 2 to 3 years and it can keep much longer.
