Côte de Beaune

AUXEY-DURESSES

Appellation Village

Pinot Noir

SITUATION GÉOGRAPHIQUE

Auxey-Duresses is a small village located in Côte de Beaune, between the red producing vineyard of Volnay, Monthélie to the north and the white producing area of Meursault, Puligny-MOntrachet and Chassagne to the south.

CARACTÉRISTIQUES

The vineyard is south-south/east oriented at an altitude included between 260 and 360 m.
It produces both red and white planted on these soils which are mainly composed with marls – suitable to Chardonnay – and clay – suitable to Pinot Noir.

VINIFICATION ET ÉLEVAGE

The grapes bear small little dark red berries. The bunches are destemmed; they macerate in open vats during 4 weeks helping this subtle terroir to reveal itself. After devatting, the wines are aged in oak barrels during 18 months.
